

A Christmas Story

1D Chan Lai Sze

It's Christmas Eve. There are lots of people in Tsim Sha Tsui. They are talking and shouting loudly.

Candy and Mark are happy. They are on a date. Candy says, "The lights are beautiful this year." They walk past a shop window. Mark points at Santa Claus. Santa Claus is carrying a bag of Christmas presents. He looks kind and gentle.

Santa Claus stands up and says "Hello" to Candy and Mark. They feel surprised and happy. They go into the shop. They talk to Santa Claus.

Teacher's Feedback: A simple and clear essay. You show details in your description. Appropriate adjectives and adverbs add colours to your writing. The picturesque scene must be very attractive for Candy and Mark. I wonder what they are saying to Santa Claus. (Miss Poon Po Lay)

Food For Thought: If Santa Claus visits you at Christmas, what do you want to hear from him?
