

The Christmas Party

1D Yvonne Leung

On 22nd December, 2004, we had an enjoyable Christmas party in the classroom. We held this party to celebrate Jesus' birth. Our class teachers, Mr Tsang and Mr Or, came to our party and had fun with us.

We played Christmas games, sang Christmas songs and exchanged presents. For the party food, we got potato chips, chicken wings, fish balls, spaghetti, sausages and pudding. The drinks included apple juice, orange juice, coke, water and lemonade. The potato chips were very spicy and the orange juice was very sour, so I liked eating sausages and chicken wings most.

The Christmas party was very interesting and all of us enjoyed it a lot.

Teacher's Feedback : A vivid description of the Christmas party. Well done!

Food For Thought : Have you ever thought of having a Christmas which has no party and gifts?
