

Christmas Gifts

3D Sally Ho

Dear Jan,

Hello! Long time no see. How are you? I'm writing to you about Christmas.

Christmas is coming. Everyone is busy buying gifts for their friends and families. I also want to give my friends and families some gifts. So I've saved $500 for buying gifts for them. Do you know what I am going to buy?

I'm going to buy a doll for my sister, Daisy. She likes dolls very much. There are so many dolls in her room. I saw a pretty doll in a shop yesterday. It costs $80. I am sure she will like it very much.

As for my mother, I'm going to buy a pair of earrings for her. She has seen them already. And she really likes them. So I am sure she will be happy when she receives my gift.

My father works every day. He always wears a jacket, but he only has a few jackets. So I want to buy one for him. I saw a brown jacket in the department store last week. I think it fits my father very well. The brown jacket will make my father very pleased.

Jan, I'm going to buy a crystal for you. Do you like it? Or do you have another idea? Please write to me.

Best wishes,

Sally

Teacher's Feedback : Quite fluent, good paragraphing and correct grammar.

Food For Thought : Buying gifts for friends or family members is a headache.

How about having a lucky draw of Christmas gifts?
