

Have A Little Faith In Me

4D Lina Leung

I know I don't have a pretty face, a sweet smile and I just wear jeans,

But I try my best to be a good girl so have a little faith in me.

I must confess I have bad hair dye and sometimes I lose my mind,

But I take a shower each day and buy shampoo to make it right.

So come on, have a little faith in me.

I am sure you have noticed my bad temper and changeable mood,

But I can hold a good conversation and take you out of the boring hood,

I guess it's time to have a little faith in me.

I think you know how bad I am at Chinese,

And how my mom worries about my cooking skills,

But I have read a few more books to learn a little bit.

Why not have a little faith in me?

I am afraid that everybody knows that sports is not my cup of tea,

And I prefer to make it in front of a computer screen.

But now basketball is something that I'm interested in.

Maybe I will get into a basketball team,

So have a little faith in me.

I told you about my dreams and who I wanted to be,

I am on my way coming across many difficulties,

But I won't give up so have a little faith in me.

Teacher's Feedback : I am very much impressed by the way you express your feelings and how you pick up yourself from despair and dismay to become once again joyful. This is a poem with courage and strength. (Miss Ruth Wong)

Food For Thought : Some say using "conjunction" at the beginning of a sentence is bad writing style, unless it is written with sophistication and appropriateness. Is this poem written with creative style or not?
