

Today, I want to introduce a place to you called Taiwan. In Taiwan, we can try a lot of special snacks such as: duck tongues, nasty smell tofu, juice made of bitter gourd and so forth. I haven't tried all of them yet.

In addition, we can find many books in Book City. There is a street which has a lot of book stores selling books. You can stay there as long as you like. You can read books and have a drink.

We can go to the night market during night time in order to buy some souvenirs and try some local food.

In Taiwan, going to a hot spring is also a popular activity. I'm sure you will enjoy the hot springs in winter!

Teacher's Feedback : I love your choice of Taiwan, a place outside of Hong Kong, for your poster. You share some personal experiences with the audience in the first paragraph. Excellent! (Miss Kwan Wing Tung)

Food For Thought : Would you be brave enough to try some famous local food in Taiwan? There is a huge variety of fried insects can be bought anywhere in Taiwan. Go and try some and experience this unforgettable meal.
