

A Diary Entry

1E Alex Lee

Today is my birthday!

In the morning, I ate breakfast in a new restaurant with my parents. Then, they bought a big birthday cake and some new clothes for me.

In the afternoon, I played basketball with my friends. After that, we watched a movie in the cinema.

In the evening, my mother held a birthday party for me. She prepared a lot of food for us. I invited my friends to my house. They gave me lots of presents. I was really happy and excited.

Now it's time for bed!

Goodnight, Diary.

Teacher's Feedback : A coherent piece of work! The ideas are well-organized. Keep up the good work! (Miss Elloise But)

Food For Thought : Your parents always care for you and love you. Have you ever thought of holding a birthday party for them?