

A Diary

3B Ye Jianbin

Today my friend John and I went to Hong Kong Island. I think there are many beautiful places to visit on Hong Kong Island and the weather was very nice today. I felt really happy.

First, we went to Stanley. It is famous for its two beaches. There were many visitors. We visited the Tin Hau Temple there. Then we went to Stanley Market. It is an array of small shops and street shops. There are many different items of clothes, food, accessories, etc. John bought some clothes and I bought some accessories. I felt very excited.

At noon, we went to North Point. It is in the eastern part of Hong Kong Island. We had lunch in a cha chaan teng. Although the food wasn't very delicious, we still ate a lot. Then we took a walk in North Point but there were many people in the streets. It was so crowded that after we had just walked for a while, we wanted to leave. Since North Point is served by Hong Kong Tramways, we had a tram ride and left North Point.

In the afternoon, we went back to Kowloon. We went to the park near my home and played basketball till sunset. I felt energized though I did a lot of things today.

That's all for now. I'm very tired, so I'm off to bed.

Teacher's Feedback : It was really an enjoyable day. The diary is well organised and you have recorded both your feelings and your precious moments. (Miss Chan Lai Yee)
